MESSAGE FROM MAYOR JUDY TRACY

Summer has arrived!

On behalf of the Town of Onoway, I would like to congratulate all the graduates from Onoway Jr./Sr. High school. I can't even imagine the relief you all must be feeling at this pivotal juncture. The turbulent year you have had is now finally finished, and you deserve to celebrate your accomplishments!

Although the town was unable to host Heritage Days, I hope everyone was able to celebrate Canada Day. Not only the birth of our nation but the lifting of restrictions!!!

On that note, as stage 3 gets underway please be mindful some restrictions may still apply: isolation for confirmed COVID-19 cases; protective measures in continuing care facilities. The provincial mask mandate may be lifted however there may still be masking required in specific settings. Please remain respectful and kind as we work through reopening!

The Onoway and District Heritage Society is excited to invite you all out for a movie! Yes, that's correct, O&DHS is hosting a Drive In on Friday August 13, at Ruth Cust park. Load up the family and the munchies and join us! If you can provide a food bank donation, we would appreciate it.

Wishing you all a safe, healthy, exciting summer.

LEMONADE DAY WAS HELD ON SATURDAY
JUNE 19, 2021

This is the winning stand and lemonade.

Cats - the Town has an animal bylaw in place which includes cats. Highlights include: no more than two cats on any one property, cats must be licensed and have a tag, cats can not run at large in the community. The Town is looking at opportunities to address the cat concerns within Town and we encourage all cat owners to take steps now to review this bylaw and ensure they are adhering to same.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION – OCTOBER 18, 2021

Nomination Papers are available from January 1, 2021 - September 20, 2021 and are accepted until 12:00 p.m. (noon) on September 20, 2021.

Voting takes place on Monday, October 18, 2021 from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the Heritage Centre
