FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL LAWYER APPOINTED TO QUEEN'S COUNSEL

The Town of Onoway Celebrates the Achievements of Michelle Gallagher, Local Lawyer of Patriot Law.

Onoway, AB, (June 23, 2022) – The Town of Onoway is pleased to recognize the achievements of local lawyer, Michelle Gallagher, of Patriot Law, for her appointment to Queen's Counsel on April 6, 2022. Onoway's Town Council presented a congratulatory plaque to Michelle to honour her professional and community achievements at the town Council meeting this June 23, 2022.

The appointment to Queen's Counsel recognizes Albertan lawyers who have made substantial contributions to their community and province, and the legal profession. The Minister of Justice and Solicitor General review any applications for such an appointment, ensuring that those awarded to Queen's Counsel hold various levels of experience and leadership in the legal field.

Michelle Gallagher has over twenty-year experience in her profession. Michelle and Ed Gallagher opened their practice, Patriot Law, over twenty years ago and have provided legal counsel to the Town of Onoway for over ten years. Before her career as a lawyer, Michelle served with the Canadian Armed Forces as a nursing officer and armoured officer for nine years.

Michelle has dedicated her life to improving the welfare of others, often volunteering within the Town of Onoway while also serving on multiple boards throughout Lac Ste. Anne and Parkland County, as well as in Edmonton. She embodies the spirit of our community, and we are proud to recognize her success.

The Town of Onoway is very appreciative of the hard work and contributions Michelle has made through her professional advice to the town over the years.

Town of Onoway Council Message:

"Thank you, Michelle, for all you have done for our town and congratulations on your well-deserved appointment to Queens Counsel!"
