Town of Onoway Annual Business License

As part of a regional initiative with Lac Ste Anne County with respect to economic development the Town of Onoway has implemented an annual business license requirement starting in 2019.

For commercial property owners that may have various businesses operating within their building, please ensure that the application form provided with this Onowaves is directed to them. Applications can also be found on our website www.onoway.ca. Thank you to businesses who have already provided the Town with their application.
